

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

Preface.

THIS Volume contains a complete transcript of the Registers of Durham Cathedral from the first entry on the 23rd of September 1609 to the end of the year 1896. They were transcribed for the Harleian Society as far as the year 1877 by the late Captain EDWARD A. WHITE, F.S.A. (the permission of the Dean and Chapter having been obtained in November 1876), and his leisure time for several years was occupied in annotating the numerous entries.

The publication was, however, deferred from different causes; and ill-health, and eventually the lamented death, of Captain WHITE prevented the completion of the work.

His Sister, Miss ELLA WHITE, however, most kindly handed over the manuscript to the Society, and, by the desire of the Council, I have undertaken the completion of the Work.

The manuscripts contained a complete and accurate transcript of the Register and a book of Notes to the various entries. By the help of Canon GREENWELL, the whole of the proofs of the Register has been compared with the original, and the Members of the Society are deeply indebted to him for the generous assistance he has thus given to the Work.

The Notes have been transcribed from Captain WHITE's manuscripts, except in the cases where he referred to certain pedigrees which he had compiled, in which case the notes thus referred to have been abstracted from the pedigrees by the Editor, and acknowledged accordingly.

A few loose notes by Captain WHITE contain the following remarks, which I think it is desirable to print fully :—

‘Where “the College” is mentioned it refers to the enclosure or collegium (i.e. Collection) of prebendal houses lying at the south side of the Cathedral, which is so termed at Durham, and answers to the “Precincts” or “Close” of other Cathedral towns.

“Bow Church” refers to St. Mary-le-Bow; locally “Big Bow.” St. Mary’s refers to St. Mary’s in the South Bailey, or, as it is now commonly called, St. Mary-the-Less; and locally, but very wrongly, “Little Bow.”

“Crossgate” refers to St. Margaret’s, Crossgate, and Elvet to St. Oswald’s, Elvet. These being without the City proper and places of themselves being styled legally Crossgate and Elvet in the County of Durham.

“Baliva” is the Bailey, the long narrow winding street running round the Abbey; “Baliva Boreali” and “Baliva Australi” being the North and South Bailey.

‘Colonel Chester’s invaluable “Registers of Westminster Abbey”* first prompted me to do the same for my own Cathedral. Then when I compared my Work with his I began to think I had been too ambitious, and my heart frequently failed me. Colonel Chester, however, took much interest in the work, and frequently wrote to cheer me and urge me on.

‘I hope it may find some favour with the Members of the Society, and that it will be received in the Cathedral City as a not unwelcome addition to the domestic history of her Citizens.’

The text of the Work is a true transcript of the original, omitting only such constantly occurring phrases, as “were married,” etc.

In annotating, Captain WHITE has followed Colonel CHESTER’S plan very closely, especially in taking as much pains in elucidating the particulars of persons in humble positions as of those of superior rank.

The following is a table of the Contents of the Registers :—

| Vol. | Baptisms. | Marriages. | Burials. |
|------|-----------|------------|-----------|
| I. | 1609—1720 | 1610—1723 | 1611—1678 |
| II. | 1726—1812 | 1723—1836 | 1678—1812 |
| III. | 1813—1896 | 1883—1896 | 1813—1896 |

Like most Cathedral Registers, the entries principally relate to the Clergy and the families within the precincts, who were mostly connected with the Cathedral.

* Published by this Society in 1875, as Vol. X.

I do not propose to make special reference to the many distinguished persons who are mentioned in these Registers. Their names are fully set forth in the Index, and considerable biographical notes will be found in the text.

It is interesting to call attention to the Burials in Woollen at page 100. They refer to an Act of 1666 (18 and 19 Car. II., cap. 4), made more stringent by one in 1678 (30 Car. II., cap. 3), for burying in Woollen; the object being to lessen the importation of linen and to encourage the woollen and paper manufactories of the Kingdom. The first Act enacted that after March 25, 1667, no person should be "buried in any shirt, shift, or sheete other than should be made of wooll onely." These Acts, however, fell into disuse long before their final repeal in 1814.*

The entries subsequent to Captain WHITE's manuscript have been transcribed by Canon GREENWELL, and I venture once more to express, on behalf of the Members of the Society, their thanks for this additional assistance to the undertaking.

It now remains only for me to state that in 1891 Captain WHITE obtained the permission of THE QUEEN to dedicate this Work to HER MAJESTY, and that, on renewing the application on the completion of the Work, I have had the honour to receive HER MAJESTY's most gracious continuation of that permission.

GEO. J. ARMYTAGE,

Hon. Secretary,

HARLEIAN SOCIETY.

* In a Work entitled "Parish Registers in England," by B. E. Chester Waters (new edition, 1883), the whole matter is set out and adequately discussed.

[Richard, son of Philip Suddick, cordwainer, baptized 4 April 1689 at St. Nicholas. There are also several Philip and other Suddicks at St. Oswald's.]

The sponsors were two sons of the prebendary. [Mrs. (Mildred) Clerke was the wife of Gabriel Clarke, D.D., Archdeacon and Prebendary of Durham. See her burial 14 Nov. 1659, in the Cathedral. MS. Ped. by E. A. W.]

burial 23 Feb. 1703-4, and Mrs. Ann Bell's burial 6 Dec. 1737; Mrs. Elizabeth Dobson ("widow" in Bow Register) was probably wife of Wheatley Dobson of Durham, mercer, Mayor in 1692, 1693, 1696, and 1697, and in her marriage licence, 1670, she is described as Elizabeth Welbury, spinster. Welbury Dobson, her eldest child, was baptized at St. Nicholas 27 Aug. 1671.

¹ The parents, Francis Hanby, Proctor of the Consistory Court, and Isabella (see her brother's marriage 1 July 1679), dau. of William Brockett, were married 22 Oct. 1667 at St. Oswald's. The birth-dates of their six older children are all recorded together at Bow, although baptized at St. Oswald's. This was Frances, the fifth of eight children, and was born 30 March 1681. Two younger are baptized at Bow, where the mother was buried 31 July 1702, and the father 24 May 1708. The Proctor was perhaps a son of "Mr. William Hanby" (buried 3 May 1698 at St. Mary-le-Bow), who was Undermaster of Grammar School under Elias Smith and Thomas Battersby, and by the latter amotus ob negligentiam et contumaciam. Mickleton terms him gentleman. "Mrs. Mary Hanby," buried 13 June 1688 at Bow, was probably his wife. The Hanbys remained in the parish to a later period, and there is a flat tombstone of the family close at St. Oswald's, close under the Vicarage.

² Fourth son of Colonel William Tempest, M.P. for the City (see baptism of Thomas Conyers 4 Sep. 1666), by his wife Elizabeth Sudbury, niece of Dean Sudbury. He was living 1729. See baptism of a sister 29 Jan. 1683-4, and the TEMPEST Pedigree in Surtees, vol. iv., part ii., p. 93. Of the sponsors, Mr. Robert Delavall was Mayor 1686, 1687, 1688, 1689, in which last year it is recorded that he, "by reason of many debts and incumbrances and judgements entred against him and his estate, hath withdrawn himself," a course approved by the Bishop. He was eldest child of Thomas Delaval of Hetton, Esq., who occurs as a sponsor 2 Aug. 1646, and was baptized at Houghton-le-Spring, where his birth is given as Sunday, 17 April 1646.

³ Daughter, by his first wife Dulcibella Naylor (whose burial see 22 Sep. 1688), of the Rev. John Morton (Linc. Coll., Oxon. B.A. 1664, M.A. 1667, B.D. 1674, D.D. 1692), installed Prebendary of the seventh stall 16 Oct. 1676, of the sixth stall 29 Nov. id. ann., and of the twelfth 18 July 1685, and collated to the Archdeaconry of Northumberland 5 Oct. following; Rector of Egglecliffe 1672—1711, and Rector of Sedgfield 1711, until his death there 10 Nov. 1722, æt. 78. He lies buried in the chancel of his church, and a tablet lengthily records his virtues. The child Dulcibella, baptized as above, married at Sedgfield 30 Dec. 1713, as second wife, William Davison of Beamish, Esq. (vide pedigree in Surtees, ii., 227), and dying 15 Jan. 1737, was buried with her husband at Tanfield. She was ancestress of the present Lord Auckland, Sir William Eden now seventh Baronet of Windlestone, and of the late John Eden (formerly Methold) of Beamish, Esq. Her great-granddaughter, Mary Anne Eden, became the wife of Lord Chancellor Brougham; and her granddaughter, Catherine Eden, married Dr. John Moore, Archbishop of Canterbury (see baptism of their son George 19 Nov. 1770). See the baptisms of her brother, sisters, half-brother, and half-sister hereafter. Of the sponsors, Dr. Thomas Smith was Prebendary of the fourth stall 1661, and of the first 1668; afterwards, 1684, Bishop of Carlisle. Domina Dulcibella Naylor was the maternal grandmother. Domina Elizabeth Blakiston was wife of Henry Blakiston, Esq., whose burial see 15 May 1683. See the burial of Dr. Morton's second wife 12 Feb. 1724-5, and MORTONS in Index.

¹ See baptism of another child 30 Jan. 1686-7. The father, doubtless, was college gardener. Of the sponsors, Marmaduke Allenson of West Rainton, co. Pal., and a mercer of Durham, was Mayor 1684 and 1685. He was baptized 18 July 1630 at Crossgate, the son of Ralph Allenson of Durham, Mayor in 1635, 1642, and 1643 (son of Anthony Allenson of Bishop's Auckland), by his wife Mary, dau. of Archdeacon Blakiston, Prebendary of the seventh stall, which Ralph was buried 29 Jan. 1656-7 at St. Nicholas; Marmaduke Allenson died 19 and was buried 20 Jan. 1689-90 at St. Mary's, leaving a numerous family, and his widow Alice proved his will 25 id. men. [Perhaps of this family was Richard Wilson, gent., who married 13 Dec. 1740, at St. Oswald's, Bridget, then aged about 50, dau. of Colonel William Tempest, M.P., who is a sponsor.] John Sudbury, another sponsor (whose sister Elizabeth married the before-mentioned Colonel Tempest), was nephew of Dean Sudbury, and LL.B. (1682) of Trinity Hall, Cambridge, and was created a Baronet 1685; he married Bridget (she remarried Edward Carteret, Esq., M.P., and had issue), dau. of Sir Thomas Exton, Knt., Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, by whom he had an only dau. Anne; at his death in 1691 the title became extinct. Mrs. Spearman was wife of the Undersheriff, whose burial see 22 Sep. 1703.

See baptisms of other children Sep. 1698, Aug. 1700, and Feb. 1704-5.

¹ Eldest son, afterwards of Tarbert House, co. Kerry, and M.P. for Old Leighlin. He was made Hon. M.A. of Wadham College, Oxford, 1769, and created a Baronet of Ireland 1787. He married Anne, dau. of Colonel Cane, R.E., M.P. for Tallagh, and had by her an only child, Catherine Louisa (she died 1851, s.p.), who married in 1807 Lord Douglas Gordon-Hallyburton of Pitcur, M.P. for Forfarshire, only son of Charles, fourth Earl of Aboyne, by his second marriage, and half-brother to Charles, fifth Earl, who succeeded as ninth Marquess of Huntly. At Sir Edward's death the Baronetcy became extinct. See his sister's baptism 9 May 1744.

² She died before 1773, as also her sister Joyce. Dr. Leslie had also two other daughters, Catherine-Elizabeth, wife of James Scott, Esq., and Martha, the widow in 1793 of the Rev. James Lowry.

³ She apparently died young; she was the elder dau. of her father, whose burial see 31 Dec. 1760.

⁴ Afterwards a clergyman, and succeeded, in right of his mother, to her moiety of the Lysterfield estates. (Burke's "Extinct Baronetage.")

⁸ She died unmarried 12 March 1812, in John Street, Berkeley Square. ("Gent. Mag.") The father was the son of the Rev. William Lowth of St. John's College, Oxford (B.A. 1679; M.A. 1683; B.D. 1688), Prebendary of Winchester, and Rector of Buriton, Hants, "a distinguished figure in the republic of letters," author of "A Vindication of the Divine Authority and Inspiration of The Old and New Testaments" (1692), "Directions for the Profitable Reading of the Holy Scripture," "Commentaries on the Prophets," etc., who died 16 May 1782. His yet more distinguished son, Robert, was born either in the Close, Winchester, or at Buriton, 8 Dec. 1710; he was first of Winchester College, Oxford, but afterwards of New College (B.A. 1733; M.A. 1737; D.D. 1754); he was appointed Rector of Overton, Hants (a sinecure), 1736, Archdeacon of Winchester 1750, Chaplain to the Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland 1755; Prebendary of Durham (see note to baptism of Barbara Leslie 9 May 1744 regarding this), and rector of Sedgefield 1755—1777; Bishop of St. David's May 1766, but translated to Oxford July following; and finally translated to London. In Feb. 1768, being then Bishop of Oxford, he writes to the Dean and Chapter that he has "received his Majesty's dispensation from keeping up a statuteable residence in the Church of Durham," and he held his stall in commendam until his death 3 Nov. 1787, being buried in Fulham Churchyard. He declined the Archbishopric of Canterbury on the death of Archbishop Cornwallis in 1783. He was a very considerable scholar, and author of "Prelections on Hebrew Poetry," "Life of William of Wykeham," "A Short Introduction to English Grammar," "Translation of Isaiah," etc. Except the above Martha, all his five daughters predeceased him. Mary, the eldest, his favourite child, was born 11 June 1755, and died 5 July 1768, being buried at Cuddesden, Oxford. Although she does not come into these Registers, the Editor cannot refrain from giving the epitaph written by her father:—

"Care, vale, ingenio præstans, pietate pudore,
 Et plusquam natæ, nomine cara, vale!
 Cara Maria, vale! at veniet felicius ævum,
 Quando iterum tecum, sim modo dignus, ero.
 Cara, redi, læta tum dicam voce paternos
 Eja age in amplexus, cara Maria, redi."

His third dau., Frances, who was baptized at Sedgefield 27 Oct. 1757, died most suddenly 21 July 1783, at a reception by the Bishop at London House, St. James's Square. She was handing a cup of tea to the Bishop of Gloucester when she dropped down dead. The Bishop married in 1752, Mary, dau. and heiress of Lawrence Jackson, Esq., of Christchurch, Hants; she died 14 March 1803, in her 84th year, and was buried in Fulham Churchyard. The Bishop had a strong prejudice against intra-mural burial. See baptisms of three other children in 1762, 1763, and 1765 respectively. See also "The Oxford Sausage," p. 89, and Nichol's "Literary Anecdotes."

¹ He was a clergyman, and of Christ Church, Oxford (B.A. 1763; M.A. 1786); he married Miss Frances Harington, by whom he had issue. See his sister's baptism 17 Oct. 1760.

Durham, of which he was Rector. His M.I. there terms Bishop Trevor his "Relation and Patron." The mother, Margaret, was dau. of Dr. Mark Hildesley, Bishop of Sodor and Man, and previously Master of Sherburn Hospital, co. Pal.

- 1764 Dec. 3 Anne, dau. of M^r Thomas Hogg and Anne his wife.

³ She married the Right Hon. Michael Angelo Taylor, M.P. for Durham City (son of Sir Robert Taylor, Knt.), who died, aged 77, 16 July 1834. Her father, the Prebendary, married 3 March 1768, at St. Mary's, Frances, dau. and eventual heiress of John Tempest, Esq., M.P. for Old Durham and Sherburn (she died 19 Jan. 1796, aged 51), and by her had, besides this dau., an only son, whose baptism see 28 Feb. 1771. Dr. Vane, who succeeded his father (see his marriage 27 Sep. 1722) in the Long Newton and other estates, was created a Baronet 13 July 1782; he died 7 June 1794, aged 66.

⁴ He was Rector of Wrotham, Kent, and Canon of Canterbury; he married, by special licence, at Lady Finch's, in Hereford Street, London, 11 Oct. 1806 ("Gent. ⁴ Of Christ Church, Oxford, B.A. 1813; M.A. 1815. The parents were married — Jan. 1790, at Brancepeth. The father (to whom a very painful monument is erected between two of the south piers of the Cathedral nave, representing him reclining on one elbow, in an attitude of contemplation, on a sort of mattress) was of Christ Church, Oxon (B.A. 1781; M.A. 1784; B.D. and D.D. 1819), Perpetual Curate of Crossgate 1783, and, on resigning the headmastership, became Vicar of Bossall, co. ⁵ Afterwards Mrs. Russell Bowlby. Her parents were married 28 Dec. 1788 at St. Oswald's. The father, who died 26 Dec. 1792, aged 27 (tombstone), and was buried at St. Oswald's, was the son of Thomas Gibbon and Grace Chapman ("both of the College"), who were married 3 June 1764 at St. Mary-the-Less. Elizabeth Liddell's younger brother, George Liddell (born at Durham about Aug. 1771; died 10 April 1851, buried at Sutton, near Hull), was grandfather of George William Liddell of Sutton and Keldy Castle, Yorkshire, Esq., who died at Oxford, 17 Nov. 1888, aged 21. The Bishop was a grandson of John, third Earl of Bridgewater, and his sons, John and Francis (whom his father made a Prebendary), ultimately became seventh and eighth Earls respectively. The mother was dau. of . . . Leake, a bookseller at Bath; she died 11 July 1801, æt. 35, and was buried at Washington. M.I.

⁶ Born at Kimblesworth, near Durham, 22 Jan. She married at Brancepeth, 4 Feb. 1817, William Stoker of Durham, Surgeon, and by him was mother of the late William Stoker, Esq., J.P., M.R.C.S., of Durham. Anthony Mowbray Crofton died 15 Feb. 1809 and was buried at Witton Gilbert. His wife died 31 Jan. 1821, æt. 57, and was buried at Hamsterley. Besides the children baptized here there was a son Thomas Crofton, born at Kimblesworth 9 Jan. 1798, who married 26 April 1836, at Edenhall, Cumberland, Elizabeth Jane Buston, and left issue; also Ann, born 8 Aug. 1798 at Kimblesworth, and bapt. at Crossgate 18 Oct. following. In the Register her mother is called Dorothy Basto Crofton, the only explanation of which is that, as stated above, her maiden name was Best, and that it was a jumble of the clerks. Ann Crofton married, 31 Jan. 1815, John Wood of Kimblesworth, and died at Darlington 26 Nov. 1890, leaving issue.

- 1796 Aug. 31 Robert,¹ son of D^r Bathurst, was privately bapt. December 10th, 1795, by D^r Bathurst, Prebendary; and publicly bapt. in the Abbey on the 31st day of August 1796 by the Sacrist.

- 1798 Jan. 9 Elizabeth,⁵ dau. of Anthony Mowbray Crofton and of Jane Crofton his wife, of Kimblesworth, near Durham.

(J. D., Sacrist.)

¹ Born 27 Nov. preceding; of Christ Church, Oxon (B.A. 1815; M.A. 1818); married, 1816, Jane, dau. of Rev. Roger Norris; was Rector of Belaugh and Framingham Pigot, co. Norfolk; died 25 Dec. 1828, æt. 32, leaving a widow and eight children. In the first rank of the many eminent men who have held stalls at Durham, the father, Dr. Henry Bathurst (D.C.L., New College, Oxon), was born in London, either in Hereford Street or at his maternal grandfather's house, Westminster, 16 Oct. 1744. He was the second son and third child of Benjamin Bathurst (a younger brother of Allen, first Earl Bathurst) of Lydney, co. Gloucester, Esq., M.P. for Gloucester City and Monmouth Borough, and eventually "Father" of the House of Commons, by his second wife Katherine, only surviving dau. of Dr. Laurence Brodrick, Prebendary of Westminster and Rector of Mixbury. He was Rector of Saperton (which he retained until about 1833), and became Canon of Christ Church, Oxford, 1774, resigning it in March 1796 for the second stall at Durham, where he was installed 20 April following. This same year he refused an Irish bishopric. He was made Bishop of Norwich circa April 1805. In Aug. 1831 Lord Grey offered him the Archbishopric of Dublin, which he declined. He died in his ninety-third year 5 April, and was buried in Malvern Abbey 14 April 1837. He married, 15 Aug. 1780, Grace, sister of Charles Henry, second Lord Castlecoote, and only dau. of Dr. Charles Coote, Dean of Kilfenora, Ireland (by his first wife Grace, dau. of Thomas Tilson, Esq.), whose second wife was Dr. Bathurst's half-sister, Catherine Bathurst. Mrs. Bathurst died 16 April 1823, æt. 67, and was buried in Malvern Abbey with her husband. They had eight sons and three daughters, of whom one son, Charles Henry, died 5 and was buried 7 Dec. 1795 at St. Mary-the-Lees, not St. Mary-le-Bow, as the "Memoirs" say. Dr. Bathurst's Life has been (1850) well and readably written by his second dau. Tryphena, Mrs. Thistlethwayte, of Southwick Park, Hants. He was one of the most liberal, high, and yet simple-minded men who have sat on the Episcopal bench, and was a zealous supporter of the Catholic Emancipation Bill, and of reform generally. In searching for his baptism at Mixbury the following baptisms of his brothers and sisters were found, which it may not be amiss to record, viz., Mary, 25 April 1747; Susannah, 2 May 1748; Selina, 29 March 1749; Hester, 4 April 1750; Frances, 29 July 1751; Charles William, 10 May 1753; Robert, 7 Nov. 1754.

² The barracks at this time were on the Palace Green, next Bishop Cosin's Library, and the Surrey Militia were quartered there.

Dorothy Forster was only dau. of Sir William Forster, of Bambrough Castle; she died, aged 42, in 1715, and was buried by the Bishop's first wife in Stene Chapel. It is a tradition that Lord Crewe had offered to make her his wife before his first marriage. Her life is vividly, if fancifully, pictured in one of the most delightful works of fiction, bearing her name, by Mr. Walter Besant.

³ He the last heir male of his ancient family, seated at Whitfield in Northumberland from a very early time; he is said, by his extravagancies, to have caused the ruin of his house. He was eldest son of Matthew Whitfield, of Whitfield, Esq., by his wife Elizabeth, dau. of Sir Robert Eden, of West Auckland, first Baronet. She, dau. of . . . Wright, was buried ("Osith Whitfield") 4 April 1752 at Wolsingham, where her husband lived in, and presumably built, a fine old mansion, "Whitfield House," still remaining. Elizabeth the dau. of this marriage, heiress of her line, married 29 Jan. 1750-51, at St. Andrew's Auckland (she then "of St. Oswald's par."), Hendry Hopper, of Wolsingham, gent., by whom she had twelve sons and seven daughters, and died at Sunderland 1807. This Mr. Hopper, elder brother of the ancestor of the Hopper-Williamsons (see "Landed Gentry"), appears to have been of quite a different family to the Hoppers seated at Todepotts in Wolsingham, temp. Henry VIII., represented by the late Rev. Edmund Hector Hopper, afterwards Shipperdson, J.P., D.L., of Hermitage, co. Pal., although the name of Hendry is common to both. The Hendry Hopper above (died 1796 at Wolsingham) descended from a John Hopper living at Shincliffe in 1574 as a tenant under the Dean and Chapter, and the Registers of St. Oswald's swarm with Hoppers from that date.

The second son of this marriage Henry Ibbetson married Miss Morton, who, as a widow, resided in the Bailey with her mother, her daughter, grand-daughter, and great-grandchildren, all occasionally being under the same roof at the same time. The Editor has considered this sufficiently curious and interesting to annex a tabular sketch of these five generations. Since he drew it up almost entirely from his mother's memory, the dates and circumstances have all been confirmed by Lady Northbourne, who writes that she herself visited her great-grandmother Mrs. Morton. (See page 81.)

Onesiphorus Dagnia (there were others of the name), of Newcastle gent., in his will dated 30 Sep. 1721, proved at Durham 24 March 1724-5, mentions his wife Margery; Christopher and John, sons of brother John, deceased; dear friend and relation John Dagnia; brother-in-law Edward Johnson, upholsterer, and Hannah his wife; nephew Edward Younghusband, and nieces Susanna and Hannah Younghusband; sister Hannah Johnson's children Edward, John, Elizabeth, and Rebecca; and niece Elizabeth Hilton.

² [After this time the Marriage Act of 1754, prohibiting marriages except in places licensed for the performance thereof, came into operation. The Cathedral being extra-parochial, the Chapter never applied for it to be licensed until quite a recent period after the date up to which these Registers have been brought. Since then there have been three marriages, all of residents in the College. The marriage of Lord Chelsea, immediately following, was by a special licence from the Archbishop of Canterbury, which enables the parties to be married anywhere and at any hour.]

Lady Cadogan died 11 Feb. 1873 and was buried at St. Luke's aforesaid. See the burial of their eldest dau. 9 Oct. 1843, and baptism of another 4 April 1844. - (Rev.) Frederick Anson, Canon of Windsor. (See Burke's Peerage—"Lichfield, Earl of.")
- HENRY RALPH LAMBTON, eldest child. Born Nov. 1824.
Used to accompany, as a child, his mother when visiting his great-grandmother Mrs. Ibbetson at South Bailey.

This is a remarkable instance of the number of generations of one family known to one person—the Editor's mother, whose father's town house in Durham was also in the South Bailey, Number 8. She has seen, and remembers distinctly, all the five generations set forth above; and what is more remarkable and perhaps uninstanced—at any rate in the higher classes—all occasionally residing at the same time under one roof. Mrs. Ibbetson lived in the South Bailey, and with her mother Mrs. Morton, then very old. Mrs. Ellison, her daughter, frequently visited her, and sometimes Mrs. Ellison's daughters and their children, there being thus at those times five generations under the same roof, and three generations of grandmothers. Mrs. Anson, who made the fifth generation, is now herself a grandmother, so that, should the Editor's mother meet Mrs. Anson's children and grandchildren, she would have known seven generations of the family, and could say to the last, "I remember your grandmother's grandmother's grandmother!" The period here referred to would be, say, 1824 to 1828, the date of Mrs. Morton's death. Mrs. Ibbetson's house, the only one in Durham which externally has any claim, architecturally speaking, to be termed a "mansion," was previously the town house of the Edens, in the days when the county gentry wintered in Durham for "the season," and it was afterwards the property successively of Mrs. Fawcett, Mr. Hopper (later by change of name Shipperdson), and Mr. William Henderson; and since (quantum mutatus ab illo!) it has been used by the University for lodging students, and again as a Girls' High School.

² The marriage licence of her parents is dated 6 Dec. 1609. This was the father's only child. The mother Elizabeth, dau. of Stephen Hegg, Notary Public (see his burial 16 Feb. 1627-8), re-married 25 April 1611, at St. Mary's, Toby Ewbanke, Esq., of Staindrop, co. Pal. (see EWBANKE Pedigree, which this adds to, Surtees, vol. iv., part i., page 141), and made her will 1 Aug. following, and died same month, being buried 25 Aug. at the Cathedral, according to the missing Register.

⁵ The parents ("S^r John Philpott and Jane Wrangham") were married 13 July 1595 at St. Mary-le-Bow. The father was appointed Perpetual Curate of Whitworth 1599, and was buried 8 Jan. 1619-20 at St. Oswald's. [The marriage, 14 July 1592, of John Phylpott and Jane Ferelesse occurs at St. Oswald's.]

John, Simon, George, and James Lightfoote, sister Elizabeth, Anthony Dodsworth, brother James Lightfoote, deceased, and two daughters of his late sister Rydale. He left £20 to erect a school at Barnard Castle.

¹ She was previously widow of the Rev. Ralph Lever, Master of Sherburn Hospital 1577—1585. Her second husband was as above. [Surtees, vol. i., p. 82, has this wrong.] Her will is dated 18 May 1616. She desires "to be buryed in the cathedrall neere my late first husband," and mentions her son Ralph Lever; to Mr. Robert Lawrence "a silver cupp guilt," dau. Thomazine Lawrence, dau. Jane Follonsby "a silver tunn and £20," daus. Elizabeth Barton, Margaret Egglestone, and Jayne Watson; to Thomas, son of Robert Lawrence, her husband's signet ring; to Mr. Samson Lever 20 nobles; son William Dixon; to Anthony Maxton, of Sherburn-house, £10 for a token; sons Robert Lawrence, Henry Follonsby, Edward Barton, and Christopher Lever, Clerk, Ex'ors.

Birmingham, by his wife A. Lane. The Colmore Pedigree, commencing with the Chancellor's father, appears in the "Visitation of Warwickshire, 1619" (Harleian Society's Publications, vol. xii., p. 335). Dr. Colmore was named by the Privy Council, Sep. 1596, to accompany Toby Mathew, Bishop of Durham, and meet Commissioners from the King of Scotland to settle disputes and disorders. In his will, proved at York, he desires to be buried in the Cathedral "betwixt my two wives." His second wife (to whom, according to a MS. note of Sir Cuthbert Sharp, he was married 8 Jan. 1579) was Mary, dau. of Thomas Barnard, of Purton, co. Oxford. She died in child-bed 1592, and Dean (afterwards Bishop) Mathew preached her funeral sermon from Gen. xxxv. 16-21. [The burial occurs at Richmond, Yorks, 25 Jan. 1587 of "Isabel, ux. Clem. Cowlemer."] Dr. Colmore had a very large family. See the burial of his tenth son 27 Nov. 1613.

² John Rangall was appointed, 22 Oct. 1582, Song Master "to exerceyse and have y^e said schole and the yearlye stipende thereunto belonginge so longe as he shall honestlye behave himself therein." He was Master, not of the Choir School, but of Bishop Langley's Song School, otherwise the "Petty School," the "Schola puerorum," the "Schola pro plano cantu et arte scribendi." (The Second Master of the present Grammar School is, as it were, the successor of John Rangall.) His burial is also registered at St. Mary-le-Bow, but there as on the 8th. See his son's burial 1 April 1635.

³ Son of Leonard Pilkington, D.D., Master of St. John's College, Cambridge, Rector of Whitburn and Prebendary of the seventh stall, who was younger brother of James Pilkington, Bishop of Durham. He married Anne (baptized at St. Andrew's Auckland 30 April 1573; living 1628), dau. of William Trotter, of Helmedon, co. Pal., gent. (see "Visitation of Durham, 1615"), by his wife Catherine Saunders, and by her had several children whose baptisms are registered at St. Andrew's Auckland. In his will he desires burial in the Cathedral near his mother; his wife Anne sole Executrix. See his sister Mrs. Hutton's burial 23 Sep. 1632.

⁴ ["M^r Jayne Bussie, wedow, verie aiged," buried 6 Aug. 1624; and "M^r John Bussie, Equire and Counsellor in law," buried 8 March 1607-8. St. Oswald's Register.]

⁵ He was baptized 12 March 1594-5 at St. Giles, where his parents William Murrey and Elizabeth Ord were married 20 April 1591. The father was Curate of St. Giles 1584, and afterwards Vicar of Pitlington, succeeding in 1594 his uncle Robert Murrey, a Minor Canon and Under Master of the School. The Robert here buried married 23 Jan. 1620-21, at St. Mary's, Barbara, dau. of Jarard Hopper. His tombstone, now gone, described him as dying aged 29, 10 Nov., and his merite in the hexameter—

"Ingenium, pietas, candor, sapientia, virtus, Cuncta tibi, juveni, juncta fuere simul."

 Jan. 12 M^r Anthonie Cradock² was buried in the cathedral church.
 Sep. 15 Richerd,³ sonne of M^r James, Prebendarie.

¹ His burial is also recorded at St. Oswald's—"a verie honest, grave and wise nighbore, in the abbaie church yard." He married firstly 25 July 1591, at St. Mary's, Elizabeth, dau. of John Horne, who was buried 9 June 1592, the same day her infant twin sons Matthew and John were christened at St. Mary-le-Bow. He married secondly 19 Aug. following, at "Madlen chappell," but registered at St. Oswald's, Margaret (buried "wedowe, aged," 13 Aug. 1641 at St. Oswald's), dau. of Robert Brantingham (he was buried 18 March 1600-1 at St. Oswald's). His will is dated 11 Nov. 1623, and he desires burial at St. Mary's in the North Bailey (otherwise St. Mary-le-Bow, which at this time buried her dead in the Cathedral yard), "nigh the great north window of the cathedral church." He mentions his wife Margaret, son Matthew at the University of Oxford, Master of Arts, and son John. Matthew Cooper the elder son matriculated at Magdalen College (described as fil. pleb.), and graduated B.A. 3 July 1616. He appears to have been deprived of his commons for a day, 30 Aug. 1618, "quod campanas pulsaverit inter horas undecimam et duodecimam nocturnas." (Bloxam's "Register of Magdalen College," 1857.) He was Curate of St. Oswald's and Vicar of Dalton-le-Dale 1621-1662, when he resigned. He married 9 Oct. 1620, at St. Mary's, Alice Kyrby, and two of their children Francis and Matthew were christened at St. Oswald's 28 Aug. 1622 and 20 Feb. 1626-7 respectively. The Vicar had at least one dau. Katherine, buried 3 July 1645 at Esh, and another son Isaac Cooper, who married 4 May 1654, at Bishopwearmouth, Margaret, dau. of George Taylor, of Monk-Hesilden, and his will, as "of Elvet, surgeon" [buried 5 July 1697 at St. Oswald's], dated 4 March 1695-6, names his sons Francis, Robert, to whom his books, and Thomas, to whom a shilling, and dau. Catherine, Executrix. John Cooper, second son of Robert the singing-man, made his will 25 Dec. 1630 as "of Elvet, yeoman," and desires burial at St. Oswald's [buried 31 Dec. 1630, "a verie honest younge man"], near his grandfather John Horne ["John Horne buried 9 Dec. 1683"]; and he mentions his brother Matthew, "to whom my filial por'con, which my mother-in-law hath yet unpaid," and his (Matthew's) wife Alice. There are many entries relating to these Coopers at St. Oswald's. There was another family of Cooper, very probably related, of whom Robert Cooper, Esq., Steward of the county Palatine, etc. ("vir pius, prudens, pacificus, variis officiis ac negotiis publicis decoratus"), entered his pedigree and had a confirmation of his arms by St. George in 1615. To him Surtees (vol. iv., part ii., p. 150) has wrongly affiliated the Matthew baptized as above 9 June 1592, but the Register of St. Oswald's clearly states that "Mathe Cooper and John Cooper, sons to Robin Cooper, were christened in Bow church, & there mother buried y^e same day." Fil. pleb. decides to which Robert he was son.

² Of Woodhouses, Auckland, Esq., second son of John Cradock, of Newhouses, Baldersdale, co. York, and afterwards of Gainford, co. Pal. (by his wife, Anne, dau. of Anthony Latus, of Beck, Cumberland), and brother of Dr. John Cradock, Archdeacon of Northumberland, whose burial see 30 Dec. 1627. He married firstly . . . dau. and sole heiress of . . . Dickinson, of Salthouse, Cumberland, and had by her Joseph, of Bishop's Auckland (baptized 26 May 1594 at St. Andrew's Auckland, his father then "of the deanery"), who married at St. Andrew's, 10 June 1622, Margery Mawker, but died s.p., desiring burial near his mother at St. Helen's Auckland; Cuthbert, baptized 1 Sep. 1598 at St. Andrew's; and Mary, wife of Richard Curteis, of Durham, stationer, whose burial see 30 June 1670. Anthony Cradock married secondly Ann Williamson, of St. Helen's Auckland (where there was a respectable family of the name long settled), who administered to her husband Jan. 1629-30, and by whom he had William [buried 28 Feb. 1711-12?], and whose dau. Catherine was buried 12 Sep. 1716; Timothy, George, and John, all living 1633; Grace, buried 22 Jan. 1678-9; Rachel, buried 10 Feb. 1695-6; and (perhapse) Elizabeth, buried 5 April 1706, all at St. Andrew's. ¹ Of Durham, Esq., Counsellor-at-Law, eldest son of Dr. Cradock, Prebendary, whose burial see 30 Dec. 1627; baptized 10 April 1592 at Gainford; married 3 June 1619, at Pittington, Dorothy, eldest dau. of Thomas Heath, of Keyper, Esq., by whom he had 1, Margaret, baptized 21 March 1620-21 and buried 8 June 1630 at St. Giles; 2, Dorothy, baptized 2 Dec. 1621 at St. Mary-le-Bow and probably died young; 3, Anne, his heiress, christened 22 July 1623 at St. Oswald's (sponsors, "Mr. John Heethe the younger, mrs. . . . Mydforth, and mrs. Francis Hilyard"), who married John Harrison, of Scarborough, Yorks, and had issue.

² He was D.D., and installed in the sixth prebend 14 July 1619, but removed (installed 5 Aug. 1620) to tenth prebend, in which at his death he was succeeded by Dr. Cosin, afterwards Bishop of Durham; Vicar of Egglecliffe 1610, and Vicar of Winston 1620. By his will, dated 24 Nov. 1624, he leaves to his dear wife Alice lands in Aislaby, co. Durham, for life, and makes her Executrix; mentions his dear mother Mary Birkhead, sister Mary Birkhead, brother Nathaniel Birkhead, to whom the Aislaby property was to go, sister Mary Bull and nephew Thomas Bull, sister Barber and her dau. Bridget Barber and her other five children, sister Thomson's children, sister Arrowsmith, sister Mrs. Place, Mr. Robert Place, and Mr. Lampton. Dr. Birkhead's wife was Alice (baptized at Dinsdale, co. Pal., 1561), dau. of Robert Place, of Dinsdale, Esq., and was living 1637. Her sister Mary is the "sister Arrowsmith" in the Doctor's will. "Mrs. Mary Birkhead, mother unto Mr. Doctor Birkhead, late Parson of Eglife," was buried at Egglecliffe about Feb. 1629. She presented a Bible to that church.

⁴ She was dau. of Richard Johnson of Durham. See her husband's burial 7 Feb. 1639-40.

⁵ Of the Cathedral Choir, no doubt. His burial is also registered at St. Mary-le-Bow, where occurs the baptism of his son John 10 Aug. 1623; the baptism 18 Jan. 1619-20, and the burial 26 April following, of his dau. Elizabeth; and the burial 21 Dec. same year of his dau. Margaret.

⁷ Baptized at St. Mary's 10 Oct. 1627. She was the eldest child of Thomas Wright, Esq., by his wife Jane Hutton, whose burial see 5 Oct. 1635.

⁸ Said to have been poisoned by his wife, for which she was tried but acquitted. He was third son of John Cradock, of Newhouses, Baldersdale, co. York (see his brother's burial 12 Jan. 1623-4); Vicar of Gainford 1594; Archdeacon of Northumberland 1619, but resigned it 6 Aug. same year, on being appointed Spiritual Chancellor to Bishop Neile, and was installed in the fifth prebend 18 Aug. (collated 7 Aug.) same year; and a Justice of the Peace. His wife was Margaret, dau. of William Bateman, of Wensleydale, and widow of . . . Robinson. By her he had a large family, and was ancestor of a family of Cradock still existing. He died at Woodhorn Vicarage, which he held with Gainford, 28 Dec. See his eldest son's burial 8 Aug. 1624, and that of a grandson 8 Feb. 1689-90. See Ingledew's "Northallerton," of which Dr. Cradock was also Vicar.

¹ Of Durham City and of Unthank. By his wife Anne (whose burial see 25 Dec. 1619) he had issue: 1, Robert (whose baptism the Editor has not found), who administered to his father, and is the author of the "Legend of St. Cuthbert." His grandmother Anne Swift, widow of the Chancellor, left to him by her will, dated 12 Nov. 1607, "the remainder of the lease of Sherborne tithes, so much as shall be unexpired at the hour of my death, for his better maintenance at school." We are told in Wood's "Athenæ" that this "prodigy of his time for forward and good natural parts was born within the City of Durham 1599." In 1614 he was admitted at Corpus Christi College, and became a Fellow in 1624. In 1626 he wrote the "Legend of St. Cuthbert," and his manuscript was, says Wood, "so exactly and neatly written, that many have taken it to be printed." He died of apoplexy, "to the great reluctance of those who were acquainted with his admirable parts," 11 June 1629, and was buried in the chapel of his College. Stephen and Anne Hegg's other children were (the following dates are from St. Mary's): 2, Frances, baptized 15 Oct. 1598 and buried Dec. 1599; 3, Stephen, baptized 30 Dec. 1599; 4, John, baptized 7 Dec. and buried 26 Dec. 1600; 5, Isabel, baptized 21 Feb. 1601-2, and married, 16 Feb. 1622-3, to John Calverley, gent.; 6, Richard, baptized 3 July 1603; 7, Judith, baptized 18 Nov. 1604, married to Marmaduke Gibbons, Clerk, and administered to her father after her brother Robert's death; 8, Elizabeth, wife of Richard Stobert (see the burial of their dau. 24 April 1613). Stephen Hegg, M.A., the second son, was presented to the Perpetual Curacy of Whitworth 1628, and married there, 19 Dec. 1641, Frances Wilkinson (buried at St. Andrew's Auckland 3 Feb. 1666-7), and by her had a son Robert, baptized at Whitworth 5 Aug. 1642. The Rev. Stephen was, presumably, also father of another Rev. Stephen Hegge, father of two children who occur at St. Andrew's Auckland, viz., Ralph, baptized 28 Nov. 1665, and buried (his father then dead) 4 Aug. 1688; and Stephen, baptized 26 Nov. 1667. The will of the second clerical Stephen is dated 21 July 1668, from his death-bed presumably ("these words spoken in the presence of Peregrina, wife of Charles Wren, Esq."), and was proved 5 Aug. following. He left his estate to his loving wife (Ann Coltpits—marriage licence 18 July 1663) and his son; she Executrix. "Mr. Belt [the curate, died 1677] and my father to have a care of the education of my son; Mr. Belt to choose out the best of my books to make him a schollar." The "loving wife" was married again, in the following November, to William Pratt, of Bishop's Auckland. ["John, son of Richard Hegge," buried 16 Oct. 1623 at St. Oswald's.]

² He was the second son of Dr. John Cosin, Prebendary of the tenth stall, Rector of Brancepeth, Archdeacon of Cleveland, and afterwards Bishop of Durham, whose burial see 29 May 1672.

³ George Barcroft and Ann Sheffield were married 10 Oct. 1626 at St. Mary-le-Bow. He married again. See his burial 10 Feb. 1638-9.

⁵ Third son of Robert Lambton, of Lambton, co. Durham, Esq., by Frances, dau. of Sir Ralph Eure, who fell at Halydon Hill, v.p., only son of the first Lord Eure. He was a "draper and taylor" (of which Guild the present Earl of Durham is "free"), and Mayor of Durham in 1626. He was twice married. His first wife Alice . . . was buried 18 Aug. 1620 at St. Oswald's, the Register of which records that she was "verie bountefull for house kepings, both for riche and powre." He married secondly at St. Oswald's, 26 Aug. 1623, "Mrs. Kathrine Kirbie" (see her burial 1 Sep. 1641), who re-married Nicholas Briggs, of Broom Hall, gent. By his first wife Mr. Lambton had an only child Isabel, baptized 9 Sep. 1600 at St. Oswald's, and buried 7 Jan. 1600-1; by his second wife he had an only son John, for whom see Surtees' "Durham," vol. ii., p. 175. The gentle draper's burial is also recorded at St. Oswald's, as "draper, one tyme maiour of the Cittie of Durham, a verie honest and relegious gen., good to the powre, of the aige of lxiiiij yeares, was buryed in the abbaie Church." By his will he desires burial in the Abbey, nigh his brother James (whose will, dated 19 Jan. 1595-6, was proved 4 March following); and he mentions "my shop in the market-place," and his brother-in-law Mr. John Browne, Clerke [he was Vicar of St. Oswald's]. John Lambton, with some of the best blood of England in his veins, closely connected with the highest families in the county, and the great-great-great-grandson of King Edward IV., is certainly an interesting type of the merchant-shopkeeper of his day!

³ Dau. of John Geers, Bachelor of Music and Singing-man. See her baptism 14 Sep. 1631, and her father's burial 4 March 1641-2.

⁵ Born 6 and baptized 14 June 1629 at Brancepeth, Dr. Augustus Lindsell, Dean of Lichfield, being godfather. Third son of Dr. Cosin, afterwards Bishop of Durham.

was baptized at St. Mary's 28 Oct. 1630. His burial, as taking place at the Cathedral, is also recorded at St. Mary-le-Bow, but there the date is incorrectly given 27 Oct.

¹ Dau. of Dr. Leonard Pilkington, Master of St. John's College, Cambridge, and niece of James Pilkington, Bishop of Durham. She married Robert Hutton, D.D., Prebendary of the third stall (installed 13 Dec. 1589), and Rector of Houghton-le-Spring (4 Dec. 1589—1623), who was nephew of Matthew Hutton, Bishop of Durham, and afterwards Archbishop of York. See the burial of one of her daughters 5 Oct. 1635, and of her brother 12 Feb. 1622-3. Her husband was buried in the chancel of Houghton Church 19 May 1623.

⁵ Son of the first wife of Richard Baddeley, of the North Bailey, gent., by a previous husband named Bridges. See his brother's burial 6 Nov. 1636. Mr. Richard Baddeley published a reprint of Robert Hegg's "Legend of St. Cuthbert" (see Stephen Hegg's burial 16 Feb. 1627-8) "at London, 1663, in octavo, in a very bad letter, and worse paper, not without some derogation to the memory of the Author by concealing his name and putting the two first letters of his own, and with the writing a prologue to it."—Preface to reprint of the "Legend of St. Cuthbert," by Robert Henry Allan, Esq., F.S.A., 1824. The will of Richard Baddeley is dated the last of Sep. 1670. In it he desires burial in the Cathedral, near his former wife's children and niece. It is singular that there is no record of his burial, nor of his second wife Cassandra, who he states was "daughter to that blessed confessor of Christ Mr. John Mole, who after thirty-two years' imprisonment in the Inquisition, for the testimony of Christ's true religion, there died." He bequeaths money to the poor of Kirby Moorside and Keldholme "where I was borne." He accompanied Bishop Morton, whose life he wrote, from Lichfield to Durham as his Private Secretary and Amanuensis. The will of his second wife "Mrs. Cassandra Baddely, widow," is dated 12 April 1673. She likewise desires burial in the Cathedral. Besides her children, she mentions her niece Elizabeth, wife of Dr. Stanhope, "now at Waterford, in Ireland," and her two children; Mr. Thomas Stanhope and Mr. Anthony (or Arthur?) Stanhope her kinsmen; her niece Annabella Hill, wife of Mr. John Hill, of Priston in Rutlandshire; Mr. John Hill her kinsman, etc. In addition to the other children of Richard Baddeley, who will be found by consulting the Index, there was a dau. Mary, buried 5 Nov. 1634 at St. Andrew's Auckland, no doubt while the father was in attendance on the Bishop.

⁵ He was baptized at Sedgfield, co. Durham, 7 Jan. 1607-8, and was son of Marmaduke Blakiston (a descendant of one of the oldest territorial houses in the Bishopric—see his pedigree, Surtees, vol. iii., p. 163), Rector of Sedgfield, Prebendary of the seventh stall and Archdeacon of Cleveland, who resigned his Archdeaconry to his intended son-in-law John Cosin, afterwards Bishop of Durham, and his rectory and stall to this son, Robert, in 1631, so that he lost both son and preferment almost together. Robert Blakiston married Elizabeth (whose burial see 18 Oct. 1634), dau. and coheiress of Bishop Howson, but had no issue. He was one of the Prebendaries who held the canopy over King Charles I. when he visited Bishop Morton at Durham Castle 1 June 1633. His nuncupative will is dated 8 Jan. 1634-5. He was brother of John Blakiston, "the regicide," M.P. for Newcastle-on-Tyne.

¹ The importance of this lady's close relationship to the episcopal families of Hutton and Pilkington (see her mother's burial 23 Sep. 1633) perhaps accounts for the above rather unusual entry. She was married to Thomas Wright, Esq., at St. Mary's 21 Dec. 1624. See burials of her children in 1627, 1632, and 1634. She also had two daughters, Mary and Elizabeth, baptized at St. Mary's 5 Nov. 1627 and 4 Jan. 1628-9 respectively. Thomas Wright, of the North Bailey, was buried 4 Feb. 1640-41 at St. Oswald's, and Mary his dau. buried 12 Aug. 1638; also John, son of Thomas Wright, "laite deceased," 5 May 1642.

He married secondly, at Houghton-le-Spring, 4 Aug. 1629, Elizabeth Ley, of Elvet in St. Oswald's parish [Elizabeth, dau. of William Ley was baptized there 17 Jan. 1601-2], by whom he had issue (all baptized at St. Mary-le-Bow) Jane, 6 May 1630; John, buried 25 May 1631; Thomas, 15 April 1632; Mary, 3 Dec. 1635; George, 19 Feb. 1636-7; and Elizabeth ("posthumous dau. of Eliz. Barcroft, widow"), 1 May 1639.

to Bishop Hutton. His wife Anne, dau. of Richard Johnson, of Durham, was buried at St. Oswald's 16 Oct. 1615. By her he had 1, John, Counsellor and Escheator of the Bishopric [baptism not found, and, like many first children, was perhaps born at the mother's home]; 2, Thomas, baptized 10 Oct. 1589; 3, Anne, baptized 6 Nov. 1590, married as second wife, 12 May 1607, Alderman George Walton, of Durham; 4, William, baptized 22 March 1591-2; 5, Helme (or Helene), baptized 6 June 1594, and buried 28 Oct. 1696; 6, Elizabeth, baptized 11 Feb. 1601-2—all registered at St. Mary-le-Bow. He had a confirmation of arms and a grant of a crest at St. George's Visitation 1615, when he entered his pedigree, commencing with himself. This appears in Surtees, vol. iv., part ii., p. 151, but is imperfect. He was the son of John Richardson, of Durham. He had a brother Bryan, baptized at St. Mary-le-Bow 10 Oct. 1572, who in his will, proved 14 April 1599, desires burial in the Cathedral, near his good friend Joseph Rudd. He mentions his sister Margaret Fairelas, Richard Fairelas, and his son Edward Fairelas; sister Elizabeth Peart and her son George and three daughters; brother-in-law James Eture and his wife Mary Eture (testator's sister) and Alice her dau.; brother Michael Richardson; sister Ann; brother John Richardson (ex'or), his three sons and dau. Ann; and mother Alice Watson. John Richardson's burial is also recorded at St. Mary-le-Bow.

¹ Clerk in Holy Orders. Occurs as Under Master (hypodidasculus) of the Grammar School 1604—1615 (perhaps longer), and as Rector, or, at any rate, Officiating Minister, of St. Mary in the South Bailey 1633. He first occurs as "lector epistolæ" at the Cathedral Sep. 1633.

² Receiver-General to Bishops Howson and Neile. He was eldest son of Simon Comyn, of Durham, Registrar to the Dean and Chapter, by his first wife Alice, dau. of John Robson, of West Morton, co. Durham (see pedigree in Surtees), and sister to Simon Robson, Dean of Bristol. Simon Comyn's second wife was Elizabeth, widow of Cuthbert Baynbrigg, of Middleton Teedale, where he himself was buried, dying 13 April 1620. He had a grant of a crest from St. George in 1615. Francis Comyn, son of Timothy above, entered his pedigree at Dugdale's Visitation of Yorkshire 1665, but it is very scant, and his own father's death much antedated.

Pal.; was Chaplain to King Charles I., and is said to have died in exile about 1650. There is a marriage licence at Durham, dated 6 Nov. 1680, for Eleazer Duncan, of Bear Park [Chapter land near Durham] and Phoebe Boyer. This Eleazer, who may have been a grandson of the Prebendary, has seven children baptized at St. Nicholas, Durham, between Jan. 1682-3 and July 1691.

He acted as proxy for Bishop Cosin at his enthronement, and he was one of the Prebendaries who supported the canopy of King Charles on his visit to Durham, going north, 1 June 1633. He married Mildred, dau. of William Neile, brother to the Archbishop; see her burial 14 Nov. 1659. Dr. Clarke died 10 May and was buried between the fourth and fifth pillars of the south aisle of the nave. His slab bears, On a bend between three roundlets as many swans; on a canton sinister a demi-ram salient between two fleurs-de-lys; over all a baton. Crest: A swan. The monumental slab, of blue slate, in the centre aisle of the Galilee Chapel, bearing the arms of GREY impaling WITHAM, and inscription (where the name is Greye) is beautifully cut and as clear as new. The baptisms of Elizabeth, Margery, Anne, and Bridget, daughters of "Richard Courtiss, bookbynder," occur at St. Nicholas between 1627 and 1636. The office of vergier appears to have been of some importance in the seventeenth century. Here we find the office filled by a well-to-do citizen, closely allied to one of the chief families in the county, and his wife being actually niece of one of the Archdeacons. Later we find a Mitford, son of an independent gentleman; and, again, early in last century, it was held by the father of the future Dean Wetherell, who was the son of a substantial yeoman ranking among the lesser gentry, and the nephew of the Rector of Dinsdale and Middleton-St. George.

where he was embalmed. The body was subsequently carried with great state to Durham, arriving 27th April. On the 29th it was taken to Bishop Auckland and buried in the chapel, which the Bishop had partly rebuilt. The date, May, given in the Register here is an error. The stall canopies in the Cathedral, the fine staircase and other carved wood-work in the Castle, are due to Cosin. See a brief but succinct memoir of him in Low's "Diocesan History of Durham" (S. P. C. K.); "The Correspondence of Bishop Cosin" (Surtees Society, where his will is printed, vol. lv.); and his pedigree (which is not quite correct) in Surtees' "History," vol. i., p. cxiv. ⁴ Son of William Neile, Registrar to the Dean and Chapter of Westminster, by Catherine Stopes his wife. He was born 9 Dec. 1609; of Pembroke Hall, Cambridge, D.D. (Fellow 29 Oct. 1629); Prebendary of third stall in Durham Cathedral, collated 1 Aug. 1635; Archdeacon of Cleveland 1638; Prebendary of York 28 Jan. 1633-4; Vicar of Northallerton 1669; Dean of Ripon 25 May 1674; was also Prebendary of the Collegiate Church of Southwell 3 Aug. 1633, and Chaplain to Charles II. He was deprived during the Commonwealth of his preferments, but they were restored at the Restoration. Died 14 April 1675, and was buried in Ripon Cathedral. [MS. Ped. by E. A. W.]

This York Attorney is not in Surtees' Pedigree of BLAKISTON of Gibside, but he was probably of that family. See the burial, 15 May 1683, of his son-in-law Henry Blakiston.

⁴ He was Master of the Grammar School 1640—1666, when he resigned; Librarian to the Dean and Chapter, Vicar of Bedlington, and Minor Canon (occurring as such in 1632, but was probably so earlier). See the burial of their second son John Mitford 4 Oct. 1704. ⁶ Mons. J. de Gravelle du Pin was son-in-law of Isaac Casaubon, and signs the dedicatory epistle of Casaubon's "Commentary on Polybius," published in 1617, after the author's death, and the above Frances was, with scarcely any doubt, his dau., and granddau. of Isaac Casaubon—not niece, which is probably a slip of the transcriber, who would be accustomed to hear the names of Isaac and Casaubon in conjunction. "Niece" and "cousin" also, in those days, had a much wider signification than at present. She was actually niece, however, to Dr. Meric Casaubon, Prebendary of Canterbury. Isaac Casaubon died, aged 54, in 1614, so that he would hardly have a niece to represent him in 1683, but it may be fairly assumed that he was grandfather of Frances Gravelle. The territorial du Pin would naturally be relinquished in England. Isaac Casaubon married Florence, dau. of the most eminent of the great French printers who bore the name of Estienne, or Stephen, or Stephanus. See Michael Mattaire's "Stephanorum Historia," 1709.

² He was brother of Dr. Peter Barwick the Physician, and of Dr. John Barwick, first Dean of Durham after the Restoration 1660. In his will, dated 23 Nov. 1687, he is described as "of the college," and he mentions his brother Dr. Peter Barwick, son George, dau. Jane, and his brother-in-law Mr. John Milner, Mr. George Read, etc.

He was a Fellow of Trinity, Cambridge, and Barrister-at-Law of Gray's Inn, Attorney-General to Bishop Cosin, sometime M.P. for Richmond, Yorkshire. He married, firstly, Sibella, dau. of Archdeacon Gabriel Clarke (whose burial see 12 May 1662), who died 2 March 1669; and secondly, Dorothy (baptized 10 Sep. 1639 at Crossgate, and buried there 24 Feb. 1709-10), dau. of Nicholas Heath, of Little Eden, co. There is a good memoir of Dr. Denys Granville in the "Diocesan History of Durham" (S.P.C.K.), p. 281, which gives a list of his preferments, etc., but where the editor, Canon Low, is a little wrong in his genealogy. Dr. Granville was born circa 1637, the youngest surviving son of the celebrated cavalier Sir Bevil Granville, of Stow, who has been termed "the Bayard of England," and brother of the first Earl of Bath, and uncle of the first Lords Lansdowne and Granville, all of which peerages are extinct. Notwithstanding his emoluments as a Prebendary, an Archdeacon, and the Rector of two good livings, all of which he afterwards held together with his Deanery, he became, from his extravagant way of life, much in debt, and was actually arrested in the cloisters as he was coming from service, in the presence,

Dr. Booth, who succeeded Dean and Archdeacon Granville in the lesser preferment in 1691, was a younger son of Sir George Booth, second Bart., of Dunham Massie, an eminent Royalist, who was created Baron Delamere 1661, by his second wife Lady Elizabeth Grey, dau. of the first Earl of Stamford. ⁹ He was Under or Writing Master at the Grammar School. Originally this school was two schools, under different masters who were not responsible to each other, but in time they became united, and the Master of the "petty school" (pro plano cantu et arte scribendi) was appointed and paid by the Master of the Higher School. To restore the schools to their former state was Nelson's great desire, and he was engaged in a long controversy with the Rev. Thomas Rudd, the Head Master, as to the stipend of the Writing or Under Master. Their letters display the rancour and personalities of any newspaper war of to-day. See some further remarks on the Schools in the Appendix. See the burial of Mr. Nelson's wife 28 Jan. 1721-2, and those of his sons' 21 Feb. 1681-2 and 16 Aug. 1702. ¹¹ Died 21st, aged 58. "A sound and judicious lawyer and antiquary"; he was for twenty-eight years Under Sheriff. He was baptized 16 Jan. 1645-6 at (Tynemouth?), the eldest son of Robert Spearman, gent., of Preston, near Tynemouth, Northumberland. He may be termed the homo propositus of his family, for he purchased in 1678 the manor of Thornley, co. Pal., which was for long the seat and is still the property of his descendants. He married 3 Nov. 1663. The births and baptisms of all his children except Michael (whose burial see 14 Dec. 1686) are entered at St. Mary-le-Bow, but consult also this Index. See Pedigree of SPEARMAN in Surtees, vol. i., p. 95, to which these Registers will be found to make some additions and corrections; also Burke's "Landed Gentry." Durham" (S.P.C.K.)* In Canon Low's account of Dr. Van Mildert it is well to correct an error. He says, "the last Palatine was carried to his tomb in the Chapel of the Nine Altars." There indeed is erected the public monument, a sitting effigy of the Bishop, but he was buried in a vault within the altar rails, the covering slab bearing his initials and those of his wife.

² Died 17th. She was wife of James Wallace, of Claypath, grocer (whose burial see 9 April 1843), and dau. of Robert Hall, whose burial see 30 Dec. 1821; and the burials of her dau. Elizabeth 2 April 1813; her grandchildren (Phillips) July 1824; and a grandson 3 Nov. 1826.

³ He came from about Cothesterone, Yorkshire. He married at Crossgate (described as "junior" in the register), 15 Feb. 1810, Ann Mowbray, of Witton Gilbert. Ann, his only child, married 1 Dec. 1835, at St. Mary-the-Less, John Grace, third son of John Grace, Esq., of Felling Hall, co. Pal. See also next entry.

⁴ Died 5th. He was a native of Pokucia, in Poland. Refer to the Count's Memoirs of himself, which, however, must be taken in parts cum grano. He was a polished gentleman, but vain and bombastic. He was only three feet three inches in height, and an exact life-size statue of him (some of his clothes are there also) is in the Museum on the Palace Green, and there is an oil portrait extant, now the property of Mr. Alan Greenwill. The "Count's Corner" on the banks is so called from the cottage, now demolished, where he lived with the Miss Ebdons—sisters of the Rev. Thomas Ebdon, Minor Canon—and which was situated in the lower garden (not then enclosed) of the last house (the Chaytors') in the South Bailey. The Count is buried in the north aisle of the nave, under the north-western tower, the slab marked J. B. Curiously enough his last earthly neighbour is Mr. Leybourne (see last entry), who was an unusually tall man.

She was born 10 Oct. 1777; died 5 and was buried at the Cathedral 11 April 1851. [MS. Ped. by E. A. W.]

* This very readable little work contains a good account of the great temporal powers exercised by the Bishops of Durham down to as late a time as that of Bishop Barrington, powers which will be hardly credited by readers distant from "the bishoprick," as that part of the diocese bounded by the Tyne and Tees was generally termed.

² Died 14th. Mother of Mr. Samuel Rowlandson, agent to the Dean and Chapter. See her grandson's burial 19 May 1845.

³ Baptized 16 April 1776 at All Saints, Newcastle; of Christ Church, Oxon (B.A. 1796, M.A. 1800); Rector of St. Mary-le-Bow, Durham (June 1809); Vicar of Stockton-on-Tees; Prebendary of Durham Jan. 1816; Rector of Stanhope, succeeding Bishop Phillpotts. When Dr. Phillpotts, then Rector of Stanhope (the richest living the Bishop of Durham possessed, which is now vested in the Bishop of Ripon), was offered the Bishopric of Exeter, of so much smaller value than his own preferment, he exchanged his Rectory with Mr. Darnell for that gentleman's Prebend. [MS. Ped. by E. A. W.]

⁶ Died 26th at the residence of her son the Rev. Edward Greatorex, Minor Canon. She was married to Thomas Greatorex, Esq., F.R.S. This gentleman, the only son of Anthony Greatorex, of Derbyshire, by his wife Miss Bingley, and grandson of Daniel Greatorex, was born at Wingfield, near Chesterfield, 5 Oct. 1758; he was Organist of Westminster Abbey from 1819, and Conductor of the King's Concerts for Ancient Music for thirty-nine years. Not more distinguished for his great musical talents than for his refined manners and knowledge of mathematics, astronomy, and even military science. As an archer, almost the first bowsman in England; as an artist, chemist, and botanist, equally distinguished. In short, "he was one of those gifted beings who appear to have the power of excelling in whatever they undertake." As such he was acceptable to the highest society, and received in the warmest friendship, not only by the Earl of Sandwich, the celebrated Lord Chesterfield, the "old" Pretender, and a host of other well-known men of genius, but by George the Third and his Queen, as also George the Fourth. He died at Hampton, Middlesex, 18 July 1831 and was buried 25 July in the west cloister of Westminster Abbey. See his grand-daughter's baptism 6 Jan. 1853 and others in Index. [See "Dictionary of National Biography," xviii., p. 33, and "Westminster Abbey Registers," Harleian Society's Publications, vol. x., p. 504.]

Bowland, of that place, where she was married 22 Sep. 1840. See her husband's burial 25 April 1876.

¹ Died 20th. He was born 7 Sep. 1793 at Tuxford, Notts, the elder son of the Rev. George Waddington, M.A. (died 1824), Vicar of that place, by his wife Anne, youngest dau. of Peter Dollond, the well-known optician, of St. Paul's Churchyard (married 18 May 1790), and grandson of the Rev. Joshua Waddington, Vicar of Harworth, and of Walkeringham, Notts, and his wife Ann, dau. (but not heiress, although the Dean quartered her arms) of the Rev. Thomas Ferrand, of Bingley, Yorks. He graduated (B.A. 1815; M.A. 1818) at Trinity College, Cambridge, of which he was Fellow; Vicar of Masham, co. York, and, 1840, Dean of Durham. Notwithstanding the changes made by the Ecclesiastical Commission, the Deanery during Dr. Waddington's tenure was of much greater value than at present. The Dean, who refused the Bishopric of Manchester, was brother of the Right Hon. Horatio Waddington, for long Permanent Under-Secretary of State, Home Department, and M. Waddington, the late French Ambassador, is of the same family. The arms his family used (Argent, on a fess sable between three fleurs-de-lys azure, a lion passant of the field), and which are in the Durham Town Hall, are wrong. This is the coat of Thwaites (whose heiress married into the Waddington family) differenced by the lion, though it was "confirmed" to William Waddington, Esq., uncle of the Dean, in 1769. The mistake first arose in 1665 through an error of the Herald Warburton. The right arms of Waddington are: Argent, a chevron between three martlets gules (sometimes sable).
